MICRO-PROGRAMMES

Our micro-programmes are an exciting new way to enrich your studies! They offer coherent clusters of courses around a transdisciplinary topic. You chose the modules you want to follow according to your interests, then get a single certificate when you complete the programme.

- Add a new pathway to your studies
- Design your own curriculum
- Move forward at your own pace
- Learn with academics and students across Europe

GLOBAL AWARENESS

Think you know what is really happening in today's world? What is globalisation? How is climate change transforming our planet? What trends are reshaping our societies?

Our micro-programme on Global Awareness offers a cross-cultural perspective on the challenges facing our world. Join us to escape your bubble and learn how you can help build a better tomorrow!

- Combining scientific, social, ecological and legal approaches.
- Developing problem-solving and analytical skills.
- Open to students at all CIVIS universities.
- Co-hosted by University of Bucharest, Universidad Autónoma de Madrid and University of Tübingen.
- 2-year cycle for programme worth 15 ECTS.
